

CONFERENCE PROCEEDING

*The Word Set Free:
Presenting the New Testament in its First Century Context*

Daniel J. Harrington, SJ, Boston College School of Theology and Ministry
Panel: Christopher Leighton, David Michael, Celia Sirois

Presented at the Center for Christian-Jewish Learning,
Boston College, January 27, 2010

To pay tribute to Daniel J. Harrington, S.J. for his many contributions to help bridge the historic chasm between Judaism and Christianity—and to mark the 2009 publication of his book The Synoptic Gospels Set Free: Preaching Without Antisemitism—the Center for Christian-Jewish Learning sponsored this Colloquium. It opened with a presentation by Daniel Harrington, S.J. Three panelists—Dr. Christopher Leighton, Fr. David Michael, and Celia Sirois—with academic and pastoral experience in the North American context, engaged with Fr. Harrington, each other and the audience to explore the pastoral and educational implications of Harrington's presentation and book.

View the video presentation at: <http://frontrow.bc.edu/program/harrington2/>