

Help Us Spread The Word!

Part of the world-wide Order of Preachers, Aquinas Institute of Theology is a Catholic, graduate school of theology in St. Louis, Missouri and is grounded in the rich, 800-year tradition of Dominican study.

We currently offer a number of exciting opportunities for qualified lay women and men interested in studying theology and preparing for ministry.

- ✦ The Aquinas Scholars Program offers up to eight fully-funded Master's level scholarships annually. These full-time residential scholarships include full-tuition funding, stipends for living expenses and books, and the option for a work study position.
- ✦ The Haciendo Caminos Program, made possible by a grant from the Lilly Foundation, allows Aquinas Institute to offer $10,000/year of additional funding to U.S. born or U.S. raised Hispanic students for the next three academic years. Students who self-identify as Hispanic or Latinx are automatically eligible for this funding.

Students in the Aquinas Scholars and Haciendo Caminos programs have the option of earning a Master of Divinity (MDiv), a Master of Arts in Theology (MA), or a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies (MAPS) degree, depending on their interests and future career plans.

Aquinas Institute offers rigorous academic programs in a student-centered environment. Our students enjoy small class sizes, personalized support, and many spiritual and social resources within our close-knit community. Through a cooperative agreement with Saint Louis University, our students have access to the academic and extracurricular benefits of a major university.

Please help us spread the word by sharing these opportunities for a fully-funded graduate theological education with your students who are considering pursuing master-level programs in theology and ministry.

Currently accepting applications for the 2023-24 and 2024-25 academic years.

For more information, visit ai.edu or email admissions@ai.edu